THE TEXT

Mrs Smith gets up early every day before her husband and her children. The first thing she does is to prepare tea, eggs and small cheese sandwiches for breakfast.

It's eight o'clock now. Mr Smith and his children are sitting at the breakfast table. They are ready to eat. But where's the mother? She's in the kitchen, of course.

Every day, after breakfast, Mrs Smith cleans the rooms, washes the clothes and after that she prepares lunch for her family.
